SFC 2005/4 A Christian Response to Feng Shui

Speaker : Dr. Mah Yeow Beng,
Dean of Students & Field Education Director,
East Asia School of Theology
Singapore

Wednesday 19th October 2005

Synopsis:

Feng Shui (Chinese geomancy that emphasizes physical as well as chronological alignments to achieve well-being and prosperity) is practiced everywhere in East Asia, South East Asia and increasingly even by others in the West. Whether people are aware of them or not, chances are they might be walking into the very layout or living or working under the very architectural structures that erected under the influence of Feng Shui. Although most Christians are not really troubled by Feng Shui, many of their non-Christian friends may be enthusiastic about it. Is Feng Shui a science, quasi-science, or a folk superstition or a religious fad? This seminar seeks to provide a Christian response to the practice of Feng Shui.

8.30 pm -10.00 pm. Holy Light Church main hall. Admission is free.
